STUDENT COACHING OPPORTUNITIES

So, you're an athlete, you love your sport, but you need a little money. What can you do? Become a student coach! The New Ulm area offers a number of opportunities for students like Steve Haag (WLA, pictured top) to take his soccer playing experience and use it while practicing for his future ministry. Steve coached JV boys' soccer this year. And if coaching younger kids doesn't appeal to you, perhaps you could snag an opportunity like Jonathan Weber (MLHS, pictured bottom), one of the assistant coaches for MLC women's volleyball this year. The ladies are currently tied for 1st with a 2-0 conference record, so he must be doing something right.

WHO'S RUNNING THIS SHOW?

MLC Student Senate, that's who. From activities like Homecoming in the fall to Winter Carnival to Red Cross blood drives, these busy people are working hard to represent MLC students and to make life on this campus as pleasant as possible. Each class has reps in the senate, and here are your '08-'09 freshman reps:

Heidi Heckman
(LPS)

Tim Babler
(Evergreen LHS)

Matthew Stuebs
(FVLHS)

Kurtis Wetzel
(Kewaskum HS)

EVENING CHAPEL – A CHANCE TO LEARN

Here at MLC, chapel is offered twice a day Monday through Friday. Morning chapel is always an opportunity to hear an MLC faculty member expound on the Word; in fact, we are currently walking through the book of Revelation. Evening chapel, however, offers Pre-Seminary students an opportunity to practice sermon writing and preaching. Each year, seniors are paired with an advisor and a text for one of the most enriching opportunities a student can have: digging into the Word in service to your fellow Christians.
