MLC Tip-Off Tournament

High school basketball teams from Illinois, MVL, St. Croix, and West took part in the first annual MLC Tip-Off Tournament last weekend. Hopefully, this tournament will expand to include more and more WELS high schools. (Tell your principals and coaches you want to come and play at MLC!) Everyone enjoyed the visit to our campus and the friendly yet intense competition. The Warriors from West won the boys' division, and the Chargers from MVL, pictured, triumphed in the girls' bracket.

A Tale of Two Cities

Readers' Theater, the second of MLC Forum's productions, is here! Forum, MLC's theatrical organization run almost entirely by students, will present the classic Charles Dickens novel A Tale of Two Cities as a radio broadcast this weekend. Director Josh Mose (WLA) says, "Being only a sophomore, I was kind of scared to direct a show, but with a lot of help, it's going really well. I attribute this to the entire cast who views Readers' Theater as another way to glorify God." Katrina Buchholz (ALA), who sits on stage producing all the sound effects, says, "Readers Theater provides a unique opportunity to meet new friends and encourage one another. MLC Forum is the bomb diggity." Bill Schubert (LPS) and Joel Hopper (Waukesha North HS-WI), pictured, are two of the actors who will make audience members feel like they're right in the middle of "the best of times" and "the worst of times."

Jingle Bell Jam

What happens when you mix Halloween, Christmas, and running? You get the Jingle Bell Jam 5K! Dozens of MLC students participated in the race and costume contest in support of suicide prevention. "The Jingle Bell Jam was the perfect way to kick off the month of December!" said Carissa Kock (LPS). "Everyone was really in the holiday spirit, which made running a blast." Six of the top 10 finishers in the race were MLC students wearing matching

Santa hats and shorts, suspenders, and jingle bells tied to their shoes. Their conspicuous costumes and overflowing Christmas joy spread smiles and cheer both far and near, and earned them the ever coveted spirit award.

Lauren Grove (Century HS- MN), Erin Kelly (Shoreland), Ruth Luehring (Lakeside), Kim Schmill (Manitowoc), and Megan Wohlrabe (Peyton HS- CO) dressed in Christmas colors for the race.
