MARTIN LUTHER COLLEGE

Homecoming Talent Show

Paul Koester (LPS) and James Otto (LPS), pictured, hosted the MLC Homecoming Talent Show. Full of comedy and crazy choreography, they kept the audience looking forward as much to the time in between the acts as the acts themselves. One of the favorites of their many amusements was “Slow Jamming the Portal Announcements,” which featured a guest performance by Vice President Schone.

- Kicking the show off and leaving everybody hungry for more were Garret Schoch (MLS), J.D. Uhlhorn (ALA), and Luke Rosenbaum (CLHS), who broke it down with their original rap “Cheesy Meal.”
- Brandon Gierach (WLA) stepped on stage next and showed off his deep, manly voice with his cover of Josh Turner’s “Long Black Train.”
- Exhibiting a little flare with his snare, Chris Hosbach (WISCO) wowed the audience with his intense drum solo, even playing while balancing the drumstick on his arm!
- The Ukuladies, pictured, Joy Reeder (LPS) and Emilee Koltz (LPS), strummed their ukuleles and sang their own arrangement of popular music, telling the story of an MLC love triangle.
- The band Foxtail Fire rocked the house with their rendition of Mayday Parade’s “Oh Well, Oh Well.” The band’s members Aaron Kristopeit (WISCO), Christopher Rue (Shoreland), Daniel Lloyd (WISCO), Eric Fricke (LPS), and Steve Millerman (Cameron HS-Rice Lake WI) are pictured.
- Then I sang and played an original composition, “This Is MLC,” which portrays the love life of an MLC preseminary student. It ends with marriage and lots of children, as pictured below by J.D. Uhlhorn, Jeff Rick (LPS), Joy Reeder, Jackie Ocampo (MLS), Jessica Eternick (Lakeside), Julie Kent (WISCO), Erin Leverage (Lakeside), Luke Rosenbaum, and Zach VonDeylen (LPS).
- Chris Schallert (Lakeside), Tim Leistekow (LPS), Aaron Kristopeit, and Bill Schubert (LPS) displayed their rhythm and creativity with their act “Sorry for Harrumphing.”
- Audience members’ souls soared as they were serenaded by the sweet, harmonious, angelic voices of Seth Meyer (Lakeside), Ross Chartrand (LPS), Colton Berger (KML), Tyler Dorn (Shoreland), and Peter Schlicht (LPS), who sang “Seven Bridges Road” by the Eagles.
- Finally, the band Ginger and the Other Spices, consisting of Luke Thomford (MLS), Josh Paustian (KML), and Mike Schwab (MLS), astounded the crowd with their arrangement of video game songs, including music from Pokemon, Metroid, Mario, and Zelda.
