They've Got Talent!

MARTIN LUTHER COLLEGE

The Homecoming Talent Show is a student favorite, featuring comedy sketches, novelty acts, and music—in short, some serious MLC student talent. One of the MCs, Ryan Klatt (West), said, "It was nice to see it all come together and hear everyone enjoying the skits and jokes we had prepared." The other MC, Peter Plagenz (WLA), explained that a unique feature is professor involvement: "The professors are so great about having fun with us and helping us make a few jokes. The show is that much funnier when the professors get involved." Pictured: Alex Mielke (WISCO) and Nathanael Jensen (LPS) present "Intro to Fine Arts," an original medley that covered the whole history of western music in about four minutes.

Let the Children Come

Many Homecoming visitors attended the dedication of the new state-of-the-art Early Childhood Learning Center. With 51 infants, toddlers, and preschoolers enrolled and 18 student teaching slots filled, the ECLC is an important part of MLC's early childhood education program. "With the growing program at MLC, more students needed places to student teach," said Professor Jennifer Mehlberg, the ECLC director. "The new center allows for that. There are also opportunities for students to come and observe the children to apply what they're learning in their courses." Future students like you can plan to teach in this beautiful new facility. Pictured: An inside view of the new ECLC.

Not Just for Guys Anymore

Powder-puff football is a great Homecoming event for campus women. Lisa Koschnitzke (KMLHS) said, "Although the rivalry can be intense, the players still remember it's a friendly competition." Danielle Ross (Lakeside) added, "I'd encourage future MLC students to participate in all Homecoming events. It gives you a chance to meet new people and get out and do something!"
