Maasz, Anthon Win Player of the Week Honors

The volleyball team started the conference season with a weekend split, defeating Crown 3-0 and losing 3-0 to Minnesota-Morris. Juniors Miranda Maasz (MVL) and Alex Anthon (Lakeside) were named UMAC Setter and Defensive Player of the Week, respectively, for their play in those two matches.

Maasz averaged 11.5 assists per set in the two matches, helping MLC hit an impressive .247 for the weekend. She also led the team with seven service aces in only six sets, and averaged a season-best 12.7 assists per set in the match against UMM.

Anthon was the top back row defender in the conference over the weekend, averaging 5.0 digs per set. In Saturday's match at UMM, she had a match-high 20 digs.

Women's Soccer Starts Conference Play with Sweep

Maurer dribbles towards goal

The women's soccer team started the UMAC season with a sweep of Northwestern and North Central. The Knights' 5-3 win at Northwestern was the program's first against the Eagles since the 2005 season.

Two MLC players received conference honors for their play, with first-year midfielder Jenna Maurer (LPS) winning Offensive Player of the Week and sophomore midfielder Casey Sauer (LPS) winning Defensive Player of the Week.

Maurer scored three goals and two assists over the weekend, moving her into first place in the UMAC in goals (seven) and points (17) through the first six games.

Sauer led an MLC defense that held down UNW's offense and shut out NCU.
